

AUSTRALIAN INDIGENOUS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Media Release

The 2013 Garma Festival is being held from 9th to 12th August. The Garma Festival is hosted by the Yothu Yindi Foundation and has become the pre-eminent festival and conference in Australia covering culture, public policy, economic development and business in and for Indigenous communities.

The Australian Indigenous Chamber of Commerce supports the Garma Festival.

This year Warren Mundine, Executive Chairman of the Indigenous Chamber, will be delivering a landmark speech at the Garma Festival Corporate Dinner on the evening of Saturday 10th August.

This event will be available to those Corporate Groups of 10 who've registered online before 19 July as guests of

Garma: http://www.yyf.com.au/365_Reservations/index.php?p=index

We encourage supporters of the Chamber and its Agenda wishing to attend this year's Garma to register online now. Refer details in the Background Notes attached link. www.yyf.com.au

Registrants wishing to send representatives to the Dinner should contact Garma Festival Director Denise Bowden from the Yothu Yindi Foundation 08 89 412 900.

To contact the Australian Indigenous Chamber of Commerce email to info@indigenouschamber.org.au

The Australian Indigenous Chamber of Commerce has been established to bring about self-reliance and economic prosperity for Indigenous Australians and their communities through commercial activity.

www.indigenouschamber.org.au

